Mark,

I had a chance to take a look at both applications, and they both look fine to me. I don't really have any changes to request. You did a great job. Thanks.

Chris

Chris:

Greetings! I lost you after your Houston Road Runner e-mail account stopped working. We sent you (to your Jolleyville Road address) some formal documents for signature back in October, but haven't heard anything from you. Just wanted to drop a note to see if you received the paperwork, and also to see if there is anything I can do to address why you haven't returned them.

Could you send me your new address (if it is different than the Jolleyville Road address) and a home phone number?

I appreciate your help and look forward to speaking with you.

Hi Mark,

Yes, I am still here. Sorry, I didn't get the mail you said you had sent before. I had been out of town for about a month, so I'm guessing that is why. If you could resend it, I'll sign off on that.

Dear Mr. McBride:

Because the above-captioned patent application was filed without your signature on the Declaration, we have received a Notice to File Missing Parts of Application from the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office ("PTO"). In this regard, please find enclosed a Declaration along with an Assignment from you to Compaq Information Technologies Group, L.P. A copy of the application as filed, and to which this Declaration relates, is also enclosed for your review.

Please sign both the Assignment and the Declaration where indicated, have your signature on the Assignment notarized and return both documents to me for filing with the PTO prior to December 15, 2001. A self-addressed, postage paid, return FedEx envelope is enclosed for your convenience.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Chris:

I left you a voice mail message at home today. I'm trying to finalize your patent application, and need the documentation (which I show was delivered November 29, 2001 by Fed Ex) signed and returned.

I appreciate your help. If you've decided not to sign, I would personally appreciate hearing that from you as well.

Thanks,
